

Women's Young Talent

In the last week, two of our promising young players, Emily Martin and Maddie Trew have been setting the golf course alight.

Emily, playing off a handicap of 24, played in the Australian Age Championship, a three day tournament in Yeppoon. She had scores of 89, 89 and 90 and is now the Australian Champion in the 12 year Age Division. As a result of this great effort she is off to the United States in July to play in the World Stars of Junior Golf in Las Vegas and the West Coast Junior Olympics in Los Angeles.

Meanwhile Maddie Trew playing off handicap of 2, came Runner Up by 1 shot with a 76 and 76, in the Jack Newton Junior Masters held at Ballina. With this great result Maddie has now qualified to compete at Bonville in the Champions Tournament. This is a big year of golf for Maddie, playing in the NSW Combined High Schools Championships at Taree, NSW All Schools Team Event in Tamworth, Katherine Kirk Classic at Maroochy River Golf Club, Greg Norman Masters ,Qld Stroke Play and Qld Junior.

Both girls are coached by Graeme Trew at the Golf Academy at Murwillumbah Golf Club.

Emily Martin

Maddie Trew

